SENATE
S. B. No. 1201

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Executive Order No. 209 or the Family Code of the Philippines, Article 18, provides:

“ARTICLE 18. In case of any impediment known to the local civil registrar or brought to his attention, he shall note down the particulars thereof and his findings thereon in the application for marriage license, but shall nonetheless issue said license after the completion of the period of publication, unless ordered otherwise by a competent court at his own instance or that of any interested party. No filing fee shall be charged for the petition nor a corresponding bond required for the issuance of the order.”

The provision mandates the local civil registrar to note down his findings that an impediment to the marriage exists in the application for the marriage license. However, the law does not provide for the attachment of the application when the license is issued. As a result, marriages to which there is an impediment may be solemnized.

This bill seeks to prevent a situation wherein the solemnizing officer celebrates the marriage even with the existence of an impediment that renders the marriage void.*
