SENATE
S.B. No. 2415

RECEIVED BY: B

Introduced by Senator Aquilino Q. Pimentel, Jr.

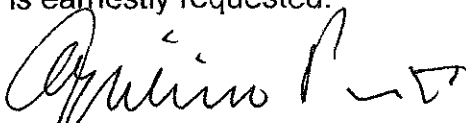

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Studies show that former prisoners have a slimmer chance of being employed after their release. Most, if not all employers, are reluctant to hire former prisoners, because of their criminal past. This makes it difficult for former prisoners to reform and reintegrate into the society.

This bill seeks to provide incentives to private establishments hiring inmates. It proposes an additional deduction from the gross income, equivalent to fifteen percent (15%) of the total amount paid as salaries and wages to former prisoners, to be given to business establishments employing former prisoners.

It also seeks to create a Committee on Employment Opportunities for Former Prisoners under the Department of Justice, which is tasked to draft the implementing rules and regulations for the training and employment of former prisoners.

The immediate passage of this bill is earnestly requested.

AQUILINO Q. PIMENTEL, JR.
