OFFICE STAR ACHITARY

FOURTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES First Regular Session

7 OCT 10 35534

HECEIVED BY: 1

SENATE

s. No. 1719

Introduced by Senator Benigno S. Aquino III

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The intent of the framers of the Constitution in creating the Commission on Appointments was to provide an effective check and balance mechanism between the executive and legislative branch of government. The act of the President in successively re-appointing bypassed nominees is a clear mockery of the above mentioned principle enshrined in our fundamental law. The 1987 Constitution, particularly Article VII, Section 16, mandates the Commission on Appointments (CA) to confirm all Presidential nominees who will occupy key positions in government.

The President has abused her power to appoint because of her consistent re-appointment of her nominees who have been consecutively by-passed by the Commission on Appointments. In fact, a Cabinet official who has been successively by-passed for fifteen (15) times in a span of three (3) years have been re-appointed by the President and allowed to continue performing the functions reserved only to those officials whose nominations have been confirmed by the CA.

The CA's constitutional mandate to serve as an effective check against the possible abuse of the President's power to appoint is thus frustrated by the current practice, as the President merely re-appoints all her nominees regardless of the number of times the said nominees have been by-passed by the CA. The restraint against possible abuse of the President's appointing power is clearly rendered ineffective if not totally non-existent.

Through this proposed bill, the mandated constitutional principle of check and balance on the executive's appointing power will rightly be enforced through the Commission on Appointments.

For these reasons, the approval of this bill is being earnestly requested.
