SENATES. No. 1805RECEIVED BY:

Introduced by Senator Manuel "Lito" M. Lapid

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Filipinos are known for their artistic creativity. In the international arena, the Philippines is acknowledged as a country of excellent crooners, actors of bravado and a haven of brilliant writers, painters and sculptors.

Among the distinguished Filipinos known for their genuine artistry and craftsmanship and who have contributed greatly to the nation's rich cultural heritage are Vicente Manansala, Cesar Legaspi, Jose Joya, Lucrecia Kasilag, Lino Brocka, Nick Joaquin, Nicanor Abelardo, Atang dela Rama, Lamberto Avellana, Ang Kiukok, Lucio San Pedro, Levi Celerio, and Eddie Romero.

The National Artist Award (Gawad Artista ng Bayan) is bestowed to outstanding Filipinos who influenced with their arts our way of living. It is an award which recognizes pure God-given talents impressing the essence of Filipino nationhood. An award for those whose works and masterpieces breathe life and serve as a panorama of distinctive Filipino society.

This bill seeks to make it a policy not to make any distinction as regards the awarding of cash prizes to winners. All Artista ng Bayan, whether living or cited posthumously, shall receive an equivalent cash prize. This is significant considering that most artists die poor because of their devotion and loyalty to their arts. And this, as a fitting tribute to Filipino genius and masters, the grant of each prize to them.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate cognizance of this legislation is earnestly sought.
