Explanatory Note

In a study conducted by the Reader's Digest Canada Magazine on common courtesies which checked whether residents of a city still honour and observe gratitude¹, the City of Manila ranked number 22. The cities of New York in America, Zurich in Switzerland and Toronto in Canada topped the "courteous cities list."

The Filipinos are renowned as a people of warm hospitality and respectful of age-old values. This is fostered heavily in our bayanihan spirit.

Believing that celebrating a National Thank You Day is not simply a sales/marketing promotional scheme but an idea that should be ingrained in our culture and should be practiced by generations and generations of Filipinos, this simple legislation is submitted.

Early recognition is, thus, recommended.
