

FOURTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC)
OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

7 10 12 P.M.

SENATE
S. No. 1848

RECEIVED /

Introduced by Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution, Article III, Section 19(2) provides:

The employment of physical, psychological, or degrading punishment against any prisoner or detainee, or the use of substandard or inadequate penal facilities under subhuman conditions shall be dealt with by law.

Torture is the strategic use of pain to destroy both individuals and society. The effects of torture are long term. Those effects, in fact, can last a lifetime for the survivors and affect future generations.

Torture victims remain under physical and psychological threats, especially in communities where the perpetrators are not brought to justice. In many instances, even those who treat torture victims are threatened with reprisals, including torture, for carrying out their ethical duties to provide care.

Both the survivors of torture and their treatment providers deserve protection from further repression. Hence, this bill seeks to provide a comprehensive program of support for victims of torture.*

MIRIAM DEFENSOR SANTIAGO

* This bill was re-filed during the Thirteenth Congress, First Regular Session.
