EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to declare the Special Shari'a Examinations given by the Supreme Court as a civil service examination and thus conferring the passers appropriate civil service eligibility, amending Republic Act 1080 entitled "An Act Declaring the Bar and Board Examinations As Civil Service Examinations."

When Former President Ferdinand E. Marcos signed PD 1083, otherwise known as the Code of Muslim Personal Laws of the Philippines and the Supreme Court subsequently promulgated the complimenting Special Rules of Procedure for the Shari'a Courts (Ijra-at Al-Mahakim Al Shari'a), the long struggle of the Filipino Muslims for recognition and acceptance of their customs and traditions as embodied in their personal laws has come into realization.

To implement this law, the government through its proper agency, the Office on Muslim Affairs, in coordination with the Supreme Court and the Department of Justice, conducts Shari'a Institute Training for qualified Muslims and administers special Shari'a Bar Examinations to qualify those who will pass to practice the Muslim Law before the Special Shari'a Courts of the Philippines and to be appointed as judges of the Shari'a Courts created pursuant to the Muslim Code. To this date, there are 300 Shari'a Lawyers licensed to practice in Shari'a Courts. In 2003, the number of successful candidates of the Shari'a Bar Examinations equals the lowest number of passers recorded in 1987. However, the Shari'a Bar Examinations is not covered by Republic Act 1080 which was enacted on June 15, 1954. As such, the Special Shari'a Bar examinations does not fall within the ambit of the said law. Although passing the said examination is a requirement for an appointment to the Shari'a Courts, the Civil Service Commission does not consider this as civil service examination and passers are not conferred civil service eligibility appropriate to first and secondary level positions.

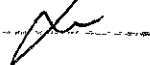

In the light of the above, the early passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
