EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 10, Article XIV of the Constitution provides that "Science and Technology are essential for national development and progress. The State shall give priority to research and development, invention, innovation, and their utilization to science and technology education, training and services. It shall support indigenous appropriate and self-reliant scientific and technological capabilities and their application to the country's capabilities and their application to the productive system and national life."

At present, we are too dependent on imported crude oil for our entire energy needs. Other sources of energy such as hydroelectric and geothermal energy are not enough to supply our energy needs. There is, therefore, a need to explore and develop other alternative sources of energy in order to solve our current energy crisis.

Being a tropical country, the Philippines is blessed with abundant sunlight which can be tapped as an inexhaustible, cheap, and environmentally safe source of energy. As compared to other conventional fuel, solar energy merely harnesses the heat of the sun; hence, it does not pollute the air nor the sea.

This bill seeks to establish the solar energy development authority. Since solar energy is a relatively new technology in the country, its potential use as an economical, safe and efficient energy source is generally unknown to the consuming public. It is therefore, necessary to create a government entity that would initiate and promote public acceptance of this new technology. It is envisioned that with solar energy, people will be more conscious of protecting their environment.

Hence, approval of this bill is earnestly requested.

ANTONIO "SONNY" F. TRILLANES IV
