

FIFTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE) REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

SENATE

S. No. 128

Introduced by Senator FRANKLIN M. DRILON

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The proposed "National Bureau Of Investigation Reorganization And Modernization Act Of 2011" aims to strengthen the National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) through the restructuring of its organization and modernizing of its forensic, scientific, investigative and intelligence equipment.

The present organizational structure of the NBI shall be reorganized into the Office of the Director, Office of the Deputy Director, Office of the Assistant Directors for Investigation Service, Intelligence Service, Comptroller Service, Administrative Service, Forensic Service, and Legal Service.

The investigative and non-investigative staff of the NBI shall be increased and their positions upgraded to adequately meet the increasing demands of an expanded investigative and detective work.

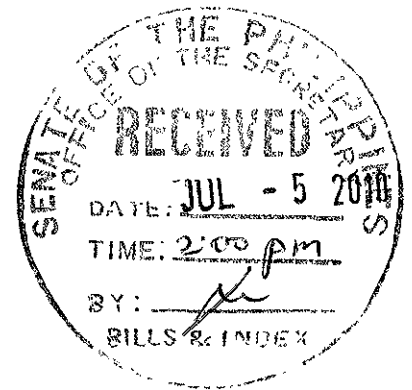

The bill likewise proposes the implementation of a modernization program geared towards the acquisition of modern investigative and intelligence equipment and the establishment of forensic and scientific laboratories. The program shall include provisions for the training of its personnel in this regard.

Further, this proposed measure seeks to provide agents and employees of the NBI adequate compensation, benefits and privileges, such as free health care insurance, accident insurance and scholarships.

A special trust fund is also established under this bill. This trust fund will be used to provide legal assistance for NBI personnel who are criminally charged with acts in the performance of their official functions. Two percent (2%) of the yearly collection from clearance fees shall be set aside for the implementation and maintenance of this special trust fund.

Immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

FRANKLIN M. DRILON

S. No. 128

Introduced by Senator FRANKLIN M. DRILON

AN ACT
TO STRENGTHEN THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION,
APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. Short Title – This Act shall be known as the “National Bureau of Investigation Reorganization And Modernization Act Of 2010.”

SECTION 2. Declaration of Policy – It is the declared policy of the State to promote respect for the rule of law and maintain law and order in the country. Toward this end, the State shall establish a modern, professional, competent and highly-trained investigative body, national in scope, to ensure effective and efficient investigation of crimes, collection of evidence, and arrest of suspects in the aid of prosecution of crimes.

The National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) shall implement a modernization program geared towards the acquisition of state-of-the-art investigative and intelligence equipment and the establishment of forensic and scientific laboratories. The program shall include provisions for the training of its personnel in this regard.

The investigative and non-investigative staff of the NBI shall be increased and their positions upgraded to adequately meet the increasing demands of an expanded investigative and detective work.

The present organizational structure of the NBI shall be reorganized into the Office of the Director, Office of the Deputy Director, Office of the Assistant Directors for Investigation Service, Intelligence Service, Comptroller Service, Administrative Service, Forensic Service, and Legal Service. Each of these shall be composed of the necessary divisions and sections.

The investigative and non-investigative staff of the NBI occupying the positions affected by the changes embodied in this Act at the time of its approval shall thereafter occupy the positions by this Act, and discharge the duties and functions of their new positions and receive the corresponding salary and benefits without the necessity of any new appointment.

The NBI shall be under the administrative supervision of the Secretary of the Department of Justice (DOJ).

Provided, however, that the President or the Secretary of Justice, may direct the NBI to undertake the investigation of any crime where public interest so requires.

SECTION 5. Powers and Functions – The NBI shall have the following powers and functions:

- (a) Act as national clearing house of criminal records and other related information for the benefit of judicial, quasi-judicial and administrative bodies, all prosecuting and law enforcement entities, as well as the Legislature and Executive branches of the Government.
- (b) Act as repository for all derogatory and criminal records, Dental records pursuant to P.D. 1575, and A national deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) database.
- (c) Render forensic assistance to judicial, quasi-judicial and administrative bodies, all prosecuting and law enforcement entities of the Government, as well as, the Legislature and Executive branches of the government, when so requested.
- (d) Establish an NBI Academy which shall be responsible for the recruitment, training and development of all NBI agents and personnel.
- (e) Establish and maintain modern forensic and scientific laboratories and to conduct research in furtherance of scientific knowledge in criminal investigation, detection and evidence gathering.
- (f) Establish and maintain an integrated, comprehensive and state-of-the-art network, equipment and facilities to be used by the NBI in its criminal investigation, detection and evidence gathering, and to provide the corresponding training.
- (g) Enlist the assistance of the Philippine National Police, Armed Forces of the Philippines, Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency or any other agency of the Government, including government-owned-and/or-controlled corporations, in the performance of its functions. Such assistance may include the use of the enlisted agency's personnel and facilities, upon the prior approval of the head of the agency concerned.
- (h) Conduct intelligence operations in furtherance of the foregoing powers and functions.
- (i) Enter into any contracts of loan or any other transaction for the acquisition, administration, lease, disposition or acceptance of real or personal property in its name.
- (j) Perform such other functions as the President of the Philippines and/or the Secretary of Justice may assign from time to time.

SECTION 6. The NBI Director and Other Officials -The NBI shall be headed by a Director and assisted by a Deputy Director and an Assistant Director for each of the following eight services: Investigation Service, Intelligence Service, Comptroller Service, Administrative Service, Forensic Service, and Legal Service.

The NBI shall and maintain Field Offices to be determined by the Director with the concurrence of the Department of Justice.

SECTION 7. Powers and Functions of the Director - The Director shall have the following powers and functions:

- 1) Establish policies and standards for the efficient and effective operation of the NBI in accordance with the programs of the Government;
- 2) Exercise direct supervision and control over all NBI employees, their functions, responsibilities and activities;
- 3) Promulgate rules and regulations necessary to carry out the NBI's objectives, policies, plans and programs;
- 4) Establish as many field offices and divisions as the exigencies of the service may require;
- 5) Deploy any of its officials or personnel for out-of-the-country missions;
- 6) Hire consultants for such length of time as may be deemed required by the exigencies of the service;
- 7) Issue firearms licenses, permits to carry firearms outside residences;
