EXPLANATORY NOTE

Due to the country's archipelagic nature, marine transportation plays a pivotal role in the commercial life of the nation. Yet it is this very same nature of our marine system which play host to a number of marine tragedies which at times cannot be avoided.

This bill therefore provides for the mechanism for the mandatory reporting of marine casualties so as to ensure the delivery of adequate remedy to poor victims of marine accidents.

Immediate passage of this bill is thus earnestly recommended.
