EXPLANATORY NOTE

The freedom, peace, security, and relief that citizens of our beloved land enjoy today are the direct results of the sacrifices and the continued vigilance of the members of our Armed Forces who have sworn to protect the people and the State with their lives. The Armed Forces of the Philippines traces its root back to the Tejeros Convention in 1897 where the revolutionary government of General Emilio Aguinaldo created the Philippine Army under Captain General Artemio Ricarte. It is in this light that this bill seeks to officially recognize these men and women who for more than a century have selflessly protected the country's sovereignty, by declaring the last full week of August as National Military Appreciation Week.

This very important week honors and remembers all military personnel – the men and women who have served throughout our history, and all those on active duty in all branches of the services, including retirees, veterans, and all of their families.

Observance of events recognizing the contributions of service men and women is a tangible and highly effective way of expressing patriotism through public appreciation for sacrifices already made and to come, and for sustaining morale for past and present service members, and for their families, as well. Planning and delivery of appropriate events by national and local government, educational institutions, civic and service organizations, veteran and military organizations, business and industry, the media, and religious institutions is encouraged.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this measure is earnestly sought.

ANTONIO "SONNY" F. TRILLANES
