EXPLANATORY NOTE

The barangay government is closest to our citizens by reason of its accessibility. It is also the oldest form of governmental leadership, with the barangay as its earliest progenitor.

The barangay government is likewise the springboard for neophyte political leaders. It is the training ground for vibrant and innovative proponents of change and acts as the microcosm of the national leadership, a rich reservoir of men and women in whose hands the future depends.

And barangay leaders and officers have genuine concern for their constituents and fellow-barangay folks, as they perform their jobs with the bravado and community spirit, though their efforts may not be properly recognized and duly reciprocated at all times.

The barangay duties and functions do expose them, particularly the barangay chairman, to dangers and risks to their lives and limbs, especially with their additional duty in, the administration of barangay justice and the peaceful settlement of disputes involving barangay residents. It is not uncommon to hear that some barangay officials, barangay tanods and SK officers get killed, or are injured, in the performance of their duties or by reason of their position or office.

This bill is anchored on the proposition that no amount of recognition will be commensurate to the dedication, sacrifice and heroic deeds of our barangay officers and youth leaders. It is the intention of this bill that the family or beneficiaries of barangay officers, barangay tanods or volunteers, and SK members killed, permanently incapacitated, or injured in the performance of their duties or by reason of their position or office are extended special financial assistance, not merely the token assistance, which can be actually helpful to them during the time of their greatest need.

Hence, early cognizance of this legislation is hereby sought.
