EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution, Article 2 provides that:

"SECTION 5. The maintenance of peace and order, the protection of life, liberty, and property, and the promotion of the general welfare are essential for the enjoyment by all the people of the blessings of democracy."

Presently, ambulant vendors or peddlers are openly harassed by police authorities, municipal inspectors and also by the Mayor's squads in the different cities and municipalities nationwide. If they are unable to present a Mayor's permit or municipal license or receipts evidencing payment of municipal fees and other charges, they are often arrested and later on, hauled to courts and charged with illegal peddling.

They are always on the run and with their limited income from selling their trade, the same is further limited by the cost of "lagay" or grease money given to local government authorities.

The present market places being provided by the local governments have become too small to answer the daily needs of the continuously growing population. Vendors who cannot be given their own market stalls are forced to sell their wares in the sidewalk and partly in the streets for a fee. The less fortunate vendors are, therefore, forced to become ambulant vendors or peddlers, whose only desire in everyday life is to earn a few pesos over their small principal capital in order to survive the very high cost of living.

We should give these poor and struggling vendors a chance to become worthy and useful citizens of our country.

Considering that this bill intends to give economic assistance to the poor segment of our society, the early approval hereof is, therefore, earnestly sought.
